[Note] 1. For the purposes of this table, include assistant instructors as full-time instructors.

2. Create this table based on the results from FY 2010. Furthermore, enter the FY 2010 number in the "Full-Time Instructors" column.

3. Include research costs paid to departments, courses and laboratories in the amount for Total Research Costs (A). However, exclude indirect costs. Include recurring costs (technical drawing purchases, equipment purchases, consumables used in research and wages for part-time workers) that are provided to individual instructors in order to support their research, regardless of the designation of these costs as course research costs or individual research costs in the amount for Total Research Costs (B).
